

Tony Buzbee

Tony Buzbee has practiced law in Texas for over 20 years. The New York Times has called him one of the most successful trial lawyers in the country. He often represents families of workers who have been killed or severely injured on the job.

Before he found success in the courtroom, Buzbee attended Texas A&M University. Upon graduation, he joined the United States Marines as an Infantry Officer and led Recon Marines all over the globe.

After the Marines, Buzbee was accepted into the University of Houston Law Center. He graduated summa cum laude. After serving as a federal judge's briefing attorney, Tony Buzbee started his own firm. Buzbee has since been routinely recognized as one of the most successful and one of the most talented lawyers in the United States, Buzbee served as a regent of Texas A&M and endowed the Dean's chair at the Texas A&M University School of Law.

In addition to being a former Marine and business owner, Tony is also a philanthropist and change agent. He is running for Mayor of Houston to end corruption, restore effective government and deliver results for all Houstonians.
